

Thank you for submitting your manuscripts to Journal of Social Studies Education Research (JSSER)
As a preliminary to sending manuscripts out for review, we read them here in the editorial office. The reason for this is that we want to make sure that the manuscript is within the aims and scope of our journal. In addition, we make a preliminary evaluation if the manuscript has a reasonable chance of eventually being accepted by our reviewers.

After reading your manuscript, we have decided to send it out for review. This decision is not based on an evaluation of the quality of your work or its significance. However, we do not think our journal is the best place to publish this manuscript, and you do not connect to the type of research that we publish. In our opinion, you will find a wider a more relevant readership if you submit your manuscript to a journal in the areas of islamic, religious or comparative education.

For alternative journals that may be more suitable for your manuscript, please refer to our Journal Finder
We appreciate you submitting your manuscript to Journal of Social Studies Education Research (JSSER) for giving us the opportunity to consider your work.
