Examining of Islamic Leadership Model and Workplace Spirituality in Islamic Institution: Evidance from Pesantren-based Higher Education

Dear Wulandari,

Thank you for reviewing the above referenced manuscript for Heliyon, an open access journal that is part of the Cell Press family. I greatly appreciate your contribution and time, which not only assisted me in reaching my decision, but also enables the author(s) to disseminate their work at the highest possible quality. Without the dedication of reviewers like you, it would be impossible to manage an efficient peer review process and maintain the high standards necessary for a successful journal.

I hope that you will consider Heliyon as a potential journal for your own submissions in the future.

Kind regards,

REVIEWER NOTES

Before	After
Abstracts	Abstracts The research findings confirm that workplace spirituality is able to fully mediate the influence of ILM in improving performance (teaching, research and Community Service Performance). Which effect has the greatest impact on performance? what are the implications?
Introduction.	First of all, research aim and tasks should be noted at the end of Introduction.
LITERATURE REVIEW Using the theoretical basis developed by Beekun & Badawi (1999), El Kaleh & Samier (2013) attempt to identify the distinction and similarity among Islamic leadership, servant leadership (servant role) from Greenleaf (1998) and transformational leadership (guardian role) from Burns (1978).	This sentence has not been completed, because it has not explained the intersection of ILM with various leadership theories such as servant leadership and transformational leadership, ethical leadership, authentic leadership. ILM is closer to which leadership theory? Is ILM closer to ethical leadership, transformational leadership, authentic leadership theory or all of them?

Besides, Galanou & Farrag (2015) examined the relationship between transformational leadership, ethical leadership, authentic leadership and transactional leadership and further uncovered that all those mentioned leadership-exception to transactional leadership extremely correlated with the Islamic leadership model.
METHODS	The method used is quite detailed, but it needs to be explained why the sample used in this study 97, the sampling technique was carried out by stratified random sampling (disproportional stratified random sampling or proportionally stratified random sampling)?
Variable Measurement	Variable Measurement: lecturers' performance other than adapted from the Government Regulation of the Republic of Indonesia Number 37 of 2009, for example from Sukirno, D. S., & Siengthai, S. (2011). Does participative decision making affect lecturer performance in higher education? International Journal of Educational Management, 25(5), 494-508. https://doi.org/10.1108/09513541111146387 Suryaman, S. Indonesian Private University Lecturer Performance Improvement Model to Improve a Sustainable Organization Performance. International Journal of Higher Education, 7(1), 59-68. https://doi.org/10.5430/ijhe.v7n1p59 ILM measurements in addition to (Egel & Fry, 2017) should also follow the concept of Beekun & Badawi (1999) and Marbun, D. S. (2013)
INTERPRETATION	Intrepretation is already well presented
CONCLUSION	What are the key findings of this study? What is the contribution of your research (either a theory or a method?)
REFERENCES	There are 14 references in Indonesian. Indonesian language references are only for important references, so the others can be replaced with reputable international journal references for the last 5 years
